

Guidelines

Thank you very much for your interest in the 18th EAACI/UEMS Knowledge Examination in Allergology and Clinical Immunology taking place digitally on October 19th 2026 13:00 CET.

Please make sure you list all mandatory information about yourself. Please also make sure your profile is up-to-date.

Furthermore, in order to successfully apply for the EAACI/UEMS Knowledge Exam, please provide as much information as you can.

Lastly, the deadline for submission is July 14th, 2026, 23:59 CET. However, please note: once we have received your application, we will send it into the review process. Therefore, if you would like to update your application, please contact us priority at education@eaaci.org

Please note that there are a limited number of spots available for the Knowledge Exam; therefore, early application is strongly recommended.

You are kindly requested to provide the following information:

- List of medical school(s)
- Details of graduation
- List of other trainings (e.g. PhD)
- List of Postgraduate training(s)
- Scientific work
- Supervisors and List of References
- Application for financial support from UEMS (please refer to the criteria listed here)

Kindly note that all documentation and attachments must be submitted in the English language. Where a document has been originally issued in a language other than English, a verified English translation shall be submitted within the same file, together with the original document. A verified English translation means that the translation includes a signed statement at the end of the translation confirming that the translator (third-party or candidate) has provided a correct translation. The wording of such a confirmation should be as follows:

"The translator, [name of the translator with address], hereby confirms that the above translation into English is a true, careful and accurate translation.

Any documentation or attachments submitted in a language other than English without an accompanying verified translation will not be taken into consideration.

We wish you the best of success with your application.

Kind regards,
EAACI Headquarters Team
